

Social, Economic & Environmental Considerations

The EIS will include an assessment of social, economic and environmental effects resulting from the proposed action.

Key Topics/Resources include the following:

- Parkland and recreational resources;
- Cultural and historic resources;
- Surface waters, navigable waters, and wetlands;
- General Ecology, Wildlife Resources, Endangered and Threatened Species;
- Coastal zone resources;
- Construction; and
- Environmental Justice.

Additional Resource Topics to be Examined:

- Land use;
- Visual resources;
- Hazardous waste and contaminated materials;
- Traffic;
- Noise;
- Air quality;
- Economic considerations; and
- Social considerations.

